

Celebrating Arts Education & Lifelong Learning!

Enjoy these coloring pages!

Spark your creativity by coloring the images, and using your imagination!

Arts, Culture, and Creativity are essential to every thriving community! They inspire discovery, create connections, encourage understanding, strengthen community, and spark innovation and positive change.

Get involved with arts advocacy during National Arts and Humanities Month in October and throughout the year. To learn more, visit the Alameda County Arts Commission website: arts.acgov.org/create

CREATE Alameda County is the arts education program of the Alameda County Arts Commission focused on advocacy and engagement. These coloring pages were created by the Alameda County Arts Commission, a Division of the County of Alameda, under the leadership of Melissa Wilk, Auditor-Controller/Clerk-Recorder.
